HAWAIIAN FLOAT IN SEATTLE PARADE JULY 4, 1899.

According to late reports from Seattle, the most attractive feature of the Fourth of July parade there was the display of the Seattle Brewing & Malting Company. This consisted of a large float drawn by a team of eight matched gray horses just imported from the East especially for their delivery trade. The float represented "Our New Possession, Hawaii," and consisted of a throne occupied by a Hawaii-an girl, Nellie Kaaoli, who was brought from San Francisco for the occasion. Team, float and throne were beautifully decorated with lels and palms and bananas were a conspicuous feature of the float. The S. B. & M. Co. have a large island trade and aimed to show their appreciation of it by their display. The float was greeted with cheers at every point, showing not only that the people appreciated the display but that they were interested in anything pertaining to or reminding them of the Islands.

EUROPE'S TALLEST QUEEN.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland has lately been objecting to being called by the press "the little Queen," although she in no way objects to the term "the young Queen." As to the adjective "little" she says: - "This certainly cannot have reference to my stature." In this she is right, for she is one of the tallest of women rulers of the present day. She measures 5ft. 514in. The Queen of Spain measures 5ft. 5 2-5in., while the Empress of Germany and Queen Victoria are still smaller. Not only is Queen Withelmins of good stature, but she is of proportionate build, for her waist of 21in, is in admirable keeping with the bust, which is 4210.

JOHANNESBURG, July 26.—A rumor is current here that the Raad at first refused to accept President Kruger's resignation only by the chairman's casting vote. Anyway, the Dynamite Company appears to be alarmed at the apparent determination of the Volksraad to cancel its monopoly. The Volksraad adjourned today's discussion of the company's proposals, and it is stated that the Executive Council at Pretoria has adopted the new distribution proposal, giving the Witwaters and Goldfields ten members in the Volksraad, instead of four and an additional six members for Klorksdrop, the idelberg and Petchefstroom.

Miss Frankie Hathaway, of Sixteenth Street, Holland, Mich., said :
"I am 21 years old, at 16 I was pale and weak and did not gain under the doctor's care. Other treatment brought no better result and by the time I was nineteen years old I was so weak I could not walk across the floor. I was terribly emadasted and my skin had lost all color.
The doctor pronounced the disease ansmin. One of my friends advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale Feople. I bought a box and before I had taken all of the pills I found that they were doing me good. Appetite increased and the healthy color began to show in my cheeks and lips. I continued to use the pills until I had taken fifteen boxes and found myself permanently cured. Since then I have had no return of my old trouble and cannot remember when I have strong and healthy as now. I know that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for

TUESDAY AUGUST 8, 1899.

A GOOD OPINION ABOUT CUBA.

In another column appears a letter written to the N. Y. Herald by Mr. Osgood Welch, who is a sugar planter in Cuba. Mr. Welch was, some years ago, engaged in the business of refining sugar in Philadelphia, and subsequently was engaged in the importation of sugar from Cuba. He finally became a sugar planter, and is thoroughly familiar with the business. He is a man of unusual ability, and his judgment on the situation in Cuba should be carefully considered. The standing menace in the near future to the Hawaiian sugar industry is the sugar industry of Cuba. The planters of Louisiana also regard it as a menace to their own sugar industry. The sugar beet people also so regard it

The United States undertook to maintain order in Cuba until its people should establish and maintain decent self-government. It was believed do so.

The experience of the last few months is, that there can be no political order in Cuba until there is industrial prosperity, and there canno be industrial prosperity if Cuban sugars are subject to the Federal tariff laws. The Federal government is confronted with the proposition of annexing the Island, so as to make its sugar free or with the other proposition of dealing with a million and a half of people who in their poverty, will be restless rush into insurrection, and cast upon the government a large expense in maintaining order. So Mr. Osgood says: "If annexation does not come pretty quickly this government is going to have more trouble in Cuba than it has ever dreamed of."

The Americans in Cuba, larger in number than the American born residing in these Islands, take the same ground that Americans have taker here, that it is the manifest destiny of Cuba to become a part of the United States, and the Expansionists agree with them. The sugar interests and the Anti-Expansionists oppose. As for ourselves, it needs much heroic patriottem for us to become hearty Expansionists, when that means the favoring of a competition of our own industry with the same industry in Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines, where there is, at least, much more labor to be had than we can secure.

While the lower classes in Cuba may oppose annexation, there is already evidence to show that the Cubans who have property and influence, together with the Americans and Euro peans, are beginning those manipulations in polities, which will secure in Cuba a popular vote for annexation. A few American "bosses," manipulating the local Cuban politicians, and, indirectly aided by the American troops, will easily stuff the ballot boxes, and the majority of votes will in favor of annexation. Sugar Trust is investing in Cuban properties, it can readily furnish the sum needed to persuade the ignorant voters. But with annexation, it will be some years before Cuba will seriously injure us.

MOVING TO DISBAR THE AT-TORNEY-GENERAL.

This case, which will be celebrated in our jurisprudence, has been decided by the Supreme Court, as the majority of lawyers knew it would be by a dismissal of the case. The statement of the case carried with it the conviction that Mr. Cooper was, as At torney-General, doing an official duty and he could be reached only by impeachment as the Constitution provides. There may be a well grounded suspicion that the motion for disbarment was made by the complainant. with knowledge that the motion would be denied, but that it would give him an opportunity to hold up Mr. Cooper to the "Scorn of Mankind," or of "getting even" with him, by public denunciation before a court.

The complainant had, as a government prosecutor, been restricted by Mr. Cooper, his superior officer, in arranging the machinery of a trial before the Police Court but there had been no interference in the substance of the trial and the prisoner was promptly won't become too friendly towards convicted and justice was done. The complainant felt that the social air had been poiluted by the offensive smell of an "abstract wrong" which Mr. Cooper had left exposed like a dead dog on the highway. It was even committed an act which was, in effect an unseemly treatment of one of our several Palladiums of Liberty; that Mr. Cooper had kicked, knocked down. defaced and rubbed in the dirt and dragged through a horse pond, this therefore, in his opinion a solemn duty os a lawyer and citizen, to fill Mr.

tions of mankind, including tourists and penal contract laborers, as constitute the bone and sinew of the community. He desired to hang up Mr. the body of Capt. Kidd was hung in Sunday: chains on the banks of the Thames, as a warning against piracy.

The complainant, with the assistance of able counsel, has discharged his duty. The Scorn of Mankind was cordially invited to fix his flerce gaze upon the Attorney-General, during a public trial of the case, and the court was asked to gibbet high the hardened wretch who had raised the mischief with one of the precious Palladiums.

But the Supreme Court says it has no constitutional power to prevent or punish the Attorney-General's ravages among the rights of the people; that the high court of Impeachment alone it is not quite clear what the complainant was driving at, in the proceedings because it is so apparent that Mr. Cooper was acting as Attorney-General, and his official conduct cannot be reviewed by the court.

When the court so decides, it makes it uphill work to invoke the fierce gaze of the Scorn of Mankind. Mr. Cooper places over the flashing eyes of Scorn, et one time, that they could and would the goggles of the verdict which the Even if we are arguing on mere politic court has given him, and the perplexed laymen lose the fun of seeing some one roasted.

The proceedings arose out of a neglect of duty by the Attorney-General. It is the unwritten law that superior officers shall protect and defend their inferior officers while they are discharging their duties. But this should not be done without discrimination. In this case, the Finance or the Law Department should have carefully examined the evidence upon which the tax collector was charged with assault. If it clearly showed that the collector was guilty, the Departments, both Finance and Law, should have refused to assist him. If the evidence disclosed a doubt about his guilt, he was entitled to be defended by his superior officer, because no subordinate will be efficient and faithful when he is told that if in the discharge of his duty, he is attacked, he must take care of himself at his own cost. In the larger municipal governments of the Mainland, it is the common practice for each department to employ its own counsel, so that while one department is prosecuting, another department of the same government is defending. This is one of the queer conditions that exist in a world of imperfect creatures. Perhaps the con plainant in this case has done good service in showing how very imperfect we are.

The President, however, can remove the Attorney-General, and if he has not behaved properly, why not send the papers to Washington, and submit them to the President?

AN IMPORTANT OPINION.

Senator John T. Morgan gave to the Press at Selma, Alabama, on the 14th of July his views about the political situation regarding the newly acquired territories. He said:

"The Congress that assembles in Deember will, in providing for the government of our new possessions, have to modify the tariff, which will materially strengthen the Democratic position. Sugar will give you issue enough. We can no more place a tax on sugar from Porto Rico, Hawaii, and Bryan. the Philippines than we can from Louisiana.

"Then in providing for the government of the Islands, will come the arranging of a financial system. Silver has been the only money there, therefore the remonetization of silver will be again demanded by the Democrats. If we can't get free coinage we will say "give us five hundred or a thousand millions.' Once we make an inroad, the rest of the party way will be cleared."

Whether it will be fortunate for Hawait, if Congress adopts his views, is a grave question. So far as Hawaii is concerned, it is a sound doctrine. But, there may be a menace to us in opening wide the door. Our prayer is that of the old farmer:

"God bless me and my wife Mary, My son John and his wife Sairy, God bless us four,-and no more." We ask Congress to bless us wish the free sugar laws, but when it comes to blessing other people, we believe that the line should be strictly drawn against them. Senator Morgan is one of our best friends, but we hope he other people.

"Is Sunday to be in no sense a fore taste of the heavenly world to which we profess to be hastening? Is it merely a day for heavy dinners and more or less aesthetic enjoyment, in a half operatic entertainment in the churches? Is Sunday to be a mere show day for one's best clothes, or for one's turnout in the parks and on the boulevards? Are we to avoid all the most serious books and all the most serious thoughts? Is everything that tells of our weakness and of the shortness of human life so much fanaticism? Is it a gloomy thought that we are seeking another country, even an can reach him. The court says that heavenly? Are the harps that we shall then tune a myth? Has the end of the nineteenth century revealed it as a fact that Scripture is so much poetry, a soothing opiate when it tells of the joys of Heaven? At least, it suggests the query whether the Church has really discovered and preached the natural the proper, and, it may be called, the "scientific" way of observing Sunday? There may be no "scientific" way of observing it, but if there is none, then what is to be done to correct this alleged error in observing that day? Is there not something wrong, radically wrong, in the traditional methods of observance, if the Church, more enlightened now than ever before, does not keep its members in order? It is a serious charge to make, that "we have downed Puritanism in this country?" Have not the intelligent body of Christians "downed Puritanism, because it ought in many respects to be "downed?" The charge is made, not by the unbelievers, but by a powerful organ within the Church itself.

THE FRUNCH PEOPLE.

Senator Depew has recently return ed from his trip to Europe, and gives to the press his opinions. He says in Paris, President Loubet made up an extraordinary Cabinet. A similar Cabinet made up in Washington by President McKinley would be as follows:

of an eminent Frenchman which bears on the influence of racial heredity in thought, and illustrates the point repeatedly made in this paper that the natives should not be blamed for their racial dislike of our small Republic. lie said: "The French know nothing and do not care to know anything of other countries. We have been only thirty years trying, under the form of a republic, which is not a republic according to Anglo-Saxon ideas, to break up the traditions and eradicate the heredity of a thousand years of autoeratic government. It took you in Great Britain, and continuing in Amerca, hundreds of years to accomplish this." The force of heredity is the first lesson to be learned in the study of political evolution.

was at the head of it. Congress had failed to create a good army system. The members crowded their political favorites into the ranks of army officers. The army was starved in its equipment by insufficient laws, and when an increase from 25,000 to 250,-000 men suddenly became necessary. no living man could, at the head of the War Department, have given satisfaction. So Alger had to suffer for the sins of the people's Representatives. No one expected that the members of Congress would rise up in a penitential attitude and say: have sinned." But when the people became angry, and proposed to lynch Alger, they stood aside, and said with pity: "There goes poor Alger, he is the creature of circumstances." Besides. Alger was an inferior man, and did not have brains enough to meet the many embarrassing conditions. In his management of the War Department, he generally took a course directly opposite to that usually taken thirty-five years ago by Secretary Stanton, who kept the politicians at arm's length, after the people had discovered that war was a serious business. His retirement is not a triumph of the people, but a step in the self-education of the people. There is nothing that shows this so clearly, as the approval of the President's action in the selection of good officers for the new regiments, and his positive refusal to accept volunteer regiments

Nearly all of the new treaties made between Japan and the European nations went into effect on July 19th. but the consular jurisdiction did not end until August 4th.

Japan is now by the voluntary act of civilized nations, placed on the common footing of all nations. The arbitrary, despotic and, in many respects. the unjustifiable power assumed over Japan by the foreign nations for nearly forty years, gave way to an acknowledgment of international rights. During these years even the most conservative Americans have made no protest against the despotic act of the Federal government, an act entirely political thought. The nation has been doing for these many years in Japan just what it is now doing in Luzon,dictating to an alien people what they should do.

There is much misgiving as to the conduct of the Japanese, under the new condition of affairs. The old European esidents predict that they will constantly do acts of injustice to foreigners, and there will be no practical remedy for any wrong done.

We cannot expect the Japanese to hange at once their racial methods of dealing with offenders. We refuse ourselves to abolish absurdities in the administration of our own laws towards ourselves and other nations, and What an individual would be forced to yet we demand that the Japanese should be measured by the highest standards of the world. ALASKA BOUNDARY.

If the dispute between the United States and Great Britain regarding the Alaska boundary had taken place twenty years ago, the air would have been full of war cries, the blood would have been up on both sides, and war preparation have been made on an extensive scale. Pala:ial Steamers to be Put On Within a Year. In Connection With Santa Fe Line.

"Yes, the present line of freight boats now running between the Orient. and San Diego will be superseded in the near future by first-class ocean liners which will bod for both passenger and freight traffic," said Colonet Aldace F. Walker last night at the Hawaiian Hotel.

Colonel Walker is the chairman of the board of directors of the Santa Fe Railway, which controls the line of freighters which have been plying between San Diego and Japan for a short time past.

"The freight line was put in as a feeler," he continued, "but now we are satisfied that we should be justified in installing a regular first-class service. and another year may see it in active operation. The steamers put in will be as good as anything now running or which is to run in the Pacific, and if we cannot buy them already built they will be built to order. The passenger traffic of this ocean is bound to increase and the Santa Fe, with its direct through line, should be able to get its share of the travel, especially the transcontinental part of it.

"Under its reorganization, made in 1896, the Santa Fe system has gone steadily ahead, and is now paying stock dividends. Give Warning of Winter

So the falling of the hair tells of the approach of age and declin-ing power. No matter how barren the tree nor how leafless it may seem, you confidently expect leaves again. And why?

Because there is Life at the Roots.

So you need not worry about the falling of your hair, the threatened departure of your youth and beauty. And why?
Because if there is a spark of life remaining in the roots of the hair

Waiakea River Channel to be Deepened.

Engineers for Hilo-Kohala Rallway Expected Next Week-Knights of Pyth as Give a Ball

Upon the completion of the new Matson warehouse, and possibly before then, R. T. Guard, agent of the Matson Line, acting under instructions from Captain Matson, will deepen the channel between the mouth of the Waiakea and young alike endorse it: river and the warehouse. At low water an ordinary Whitehall boat passes over the bar with difficulty and by deepening it vessels discharging by scows need suffer no delay. The dredging will be done in a novel manner and without the services of a re gular machine for the purpose.-Her-

A. C. Curtis has been assigned to the position of assistant bookkeeper of the Olaa Sugar Co.

Samuel Parker and A. B. Loebenstein will build residences on Waianuenue street mauka of the Hilo Hospital.

Carpenters are completing the Baldwin building on Waianuenue street. The plate glass windows will be set in a few days.

Hilo papers are anticipating changes in the Custom House force in that city. Consular-Agent Furneaux states that Custom House reports show that Hilo has during the past year shipped about one-fourth the products of the Islands Jim Wilson, brother of J. R. Wilson, who was a few years ago bookkeeper at the Volcano Stables, will return from the coast soon and have charge of the Hilo Hotel Annex.

H. E. Cruzan, son of Rev. J. M. Cruzan, has arrived in Hilo on the bark

Sugar cane at the coffee plantation of Chas. Eagan at 23 miles is reported by several who have seen it to be growing as luxuriantly as any in the district.

H. Hackfeld & Co. will construct a new warehouse at their Hilo lumber yard.

A. B. Loebenstein returned on Saturday from his overland trip to Kawaihae. He telephones that during his absence he has received a letter from H. B. Gehr, saying that the engineers for the Hilo-Kohala railway leave San Francisco on August 8.

The Knights of Pythias celebrated their entrance into their new quarters in the Baldwin block on Thursday evening last with a big dance, to which five hundred invitations were extended.

With a few exceptions, mainly composed office-holders and employees of the Government, the natives have until now refused to take part in public affairs, while those whom they blame for the loss of their country's independence, as they call it, hold power. This attitude was very pronounced when registration was going ahead lately for a general election, which, under the laws of the Republic of Hawali, would have come due next autumn. No public money may be expended without legislative authority, and, in the event of Congress failing to pass the Hawatian Territorial bill the coming session deadlock would certainly ensue in all public business of the Islands if a new Legislature had not in the meantime been elected. President McKinley, you may have read, ordered President Dole to call off the local election, giving trong assurance in a confidential note that the Hawaiian bill would pass at the ensuing session of Congress.

I was going to say, it was proved that the great bulk of the natives were going to disfranchise themselves by neglecting to register. Some of their most influential leaders urged them in vain to grasp the franchise so that they could vote out of power those who had overthrown the monarchy, not with any idea that they could restore the old form of government, but just to show their strength and have a lit-
